Dear [AUTHOR/ARTIST],

We are pleased to accept [TITLE(S)] (hereafter referred to as “the Work(s)”) for publication in Storyline. By signing this letter of agreement, you attest that the Work(s) are your own original creation(s) and have not been previously published in any form, do not infringe on the copyright or violate any rights of a third party, and that you have full power and authority to grant to the publisher, Storyline:

1. First U.S. American rights for print publication of the Work(s), properly attributed, in a future issue of Storyline.
2. Indefinite non-exclusive royalty-free license for electronic publication of the Work(s) online at <http://storyline.gmu.edu> and within the Storyline social media accounts with proper attribution.
3. Possible inclusion of the Work(s) in a future print or electronic anthology published by Storyline.
4. Permission to reproduce the Work(s) in part or whole for promotional purposes.

All other rights remain the author’s. Authors have the right to publish and produce their work after our initial printing.

Feel free to contact us at Storylin@gmu.edu with any questions or concerns.

By signing this agreement, the author indemnifies and holds harmless the Editor(s) and George Mason University and its employees and agents for any and all claims, damages, liabilities, or expenses (including legal costs and expenses) related to the use, distribution, and publication of the Work(s) as identified above.

Sincerely,
Storyline
